JASP

Free and Open-Source

Easy to Use

Bayesian and Classical

A Fresh Way to Do Statistics

JASP is a statistical software package unlike any other. It is free and open-source, has an attractive and intuitive user interface, and includes both Bayesian and classical analyses. With JASP it is easy to conduct analyses, annotate output, save results and share them with students and colleagues — JASP was designed with you in mind. Download JASP now and experience the freshness yourself. Eager to explore the Bayesian side of JASP? Sign up for our Amsterdam workshop and get with the program of the future.
